Additional Comments

Thank you very much for contacting our Embassy to request information on the application process for free scholarships in Cuba.

First thing to be done is to send to our Embassy an envelope to the attention of Mrs. Mabel Rodriguez containing the following documents: Curriculum Vitae, email, telephone numbers.

- Photocopy of the birth registration form

- Photocopy of the CXC and CAPE academic results

- Complete the attached application form

Applicants shall produce, at the moment of the application, a copy of their birth registration form, 1 picture, copies of their school leaving certificates and grade slips, copies of their CXC and CAPE results.

Applicants can also deliver documents at the Scholarship Office headed by Ms. Kelli Ann Garrick in the Ministry of Finance, whose email addresses and telephone numbers respectively are the following: kelliann.garrick@mof.gov.jm, 322-1046/932-5024.

The selection criteria are very clear, favoring those applicants with the best academic results and who, due to their serious economic and financial situation (members of low-income families), are unable to enroll in universities overseas. The number of scholarship spaces always depends on our actual economic reality. The selection, which can be very tough for the members of the Committee, involves a number of specialists (a Cuban doctor, the head of the Cuban Teachers team, two consultant professors, an official from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, the Head of the Scholarship Unit from the Ministry of Finance, an official from the Ministry of Health, and some others) who go thoroughly through each applicant's file to determine who best meet the criteria.
